

THE INSTITUTE FOR LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT

Part-time Position Available for a Neuropsychologist or Clinical Psychologist

The Institute for Learning and Development (ILD) is dedicated to transforming the lives of students with learning differences such as: dyslexia, ADHD, and executive function difficulties. We collaborate with parents, teachers, and other professionals to evaluate and teach students of all ages so they become strategic learners and attain unique pathways to success.

Our Institutes provide:

- Consultations
- Psychological and Educational Evaluations
- Educational Therapy/Specialized Tutoring
- Psychotherapy and Coaching
- Professional Training and Parent Education

Responsibilities:

ILD provides comprehensive psychological and educational evaluations for children, adolescents, and college students. We use a process approach that emphasizes individual strengths. In addition, we provide extensive recommendations using evidence-based strategy instruction. We are seeking a neuropsychologist or clinical psychologist to complete psycho-educational evaluations, and also consult with families, schools, and other relevant professionals. Experience with evaluations for preschoolers and children with autism spectrum disorders is a plus.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. or Psy.D.
- Licensed psychologist, neuropsychologist, or clinical psychologist
- Part-time: Fee for Service

To Apply:

Please submit resume, three professional references, and two sample reports to Julie Sayer at jsayer@ildlex.org.

Contact Person:

Julie Sayer, M.A./CAGS, Assistant Director of Assessment
Institutes for Learning and Development
4 Militia Drive, Suite 20
Lexington, MA 02421
(p) 781-861-3711
(f) 781-861-3701