Remote Executive Function Coaching/Support for College Students- Spring 2022

Semester Packages: Pre-pay and Save Time and Money!

Effective executive function strategies are the key to academic success! When students learn how to learn, they can deal with academic stresses and life's uncertainties with confidence, persistence, and resiliency!

Our Master-level executive function (EF) coaches are trained to help college students develop an executive function toolbox with strategies for time management, organization, prioritization, flexible thinking, self-monitoring, study and test-taking, and self-advocacy, while also reducing stress!

Why college students choose ILD:

- Learning disabilities and executive function specialists
- Research-based and tested executive function strategies
- Virtual/remote coaching
- Individualized sessions
- Flexible schedules
- Record of success with college students!

Two college semester packages are available depending on student needs. Fees are based on a 15-week semester. All sessions are customized to meet individual student needs.

*Pay by session is also available at the standard rate of $178.

Type	Description of Services	Hours per semester	Fee
Level 1: Executive Function Coaching/Educational Therapy	This level is for students who would benefit from 15 to 30-minute check-ins per week. Coaching would involve applying effective executive function strategies to college coursework.	8 hours (e.g., 30 minutes per week)	$1350 5% discount
Level 2: Executive Function Coaching/Educational Therapy	This level is for students who would benefit from multiple check points or longer ones, during the week, or who need additional assistance with planning, note-taking, editing papers, and advocating with professors.	15 hours (e.g., 1 hour per week)	$2400 10% discount

*Additional hours may be added at the same discounted rate. Hours may also be used for consultations with parents and outside professionals, when appropriate.
