

RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

Educational Therapist and Teacher Trainer

RESEARCHILD (Research Institute for Learning and Development) directed by Dr. Lynn Meltzer, is world-renowned for clinical work, teacher training, research, and curriculum development focused on executive function strategies that empower students to learn how to learn. Our flagship SMARTS EF curriculum is being used by educators in 46 states and 27 countries. We are dedicated to transforming the lives of students with learning differences and executive function difficulties. We collaborate with parents, teachers, and other professionals to teach students of all ages, so that they become strategic learners and find their unique pathways to academic and life success.

ResearchILD is seeking a FT or PT Educational Therapist and Teacher Trainer who will provide individualized remediation, academic support, and executive function instruction to students with learning and attention differences while also providing online SMARTS EF strategy training to educators locally and globally.

Educational Therapy (~50%)

- Plan and implement 1:1 educational therapy/executive function strategy sessions for clients assigned by ResearchILD.
- Initiate and sustain contact with clients' parents/caregivers and relevant professional or school personnel.
- Maintain weekly plans and progress notes for educational therapy sessions.
- Attend school meetings with families when appropriate or feasible.

Teacher Training (~40%)

- Deliver SMARTS Teacher Trainings, consultations, and coaching services on behalf of ResearchILD that focus on teaching the SMARTS EF curriculum.
- Facilitate individual and group activities designed by the SMARTS team.
- Assist with the training of teachers who are selected for ResearchILD's Executive Function and Equity Fellowship.
- Participate in SMARTS and ResearchILD workshops, conferences, summits, and other trainings about ResearchILD's curriculum and professional development programs.

Curriculum Development (~10%)

- Work closely with the SMARTS Director and ResearchILD's Director of Outreach and Professional Development to design and develop materials for SMARTS.

- Develop related and new SMARTS materials, content, and programs (e.g. curriculum, quick reference guides, teacher guides, trainer tool kits)
- Assist with the development of supplemental EF learning resources, i.e., articles, video, visuals, based on need and opportunity.
- Work with the SMARTS curriculum and training specialists to develop teacher presentations.

Qualifications and Personal Characteristics:

- M.Ed. with minimum of 3-5 years of experience
- Experience working with children, adolescents, and adults
- Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and team skills
- Enjoys teamwork and collaborates easily
- Excellent communication skills
- Flexible mindset and attentive to details

Why Join Our Team:

- Unique opportunity to work in an organization which integrates research, theory, and practice
- Strong collaborative culture
- Flexible hours with a mix of in-office and remote work options
- Paid holiday, vacation, sick, and personal days and IRA matching contribution
- Opportunities for professional collaboration and growth as part of our non-profit ResearchILD

Please submit a resume and cover letter to: Robin Winston at rwinston@researchchild.org.